

FREDERICK COUNTY BOARD OF APPEALS
STAFF REPORT FOR DECEMBER 17, 2020 @ 7pm

Case Number: B-19-20-20 (B260493)

Applicant: Sergey Ivanchenko

Appeal: Requesting a Special Exception for a Limited Agricultural Activity in the Residential Districts.

Location: Property identified as 11701 Fairmont Place, Ijamsville MD 21754, Tax Map 0097, Parcel 219, Tax ID# 09277463, Zoned Low Density Residential (R1), Size 1.137 Acres

Planning Region: Urbana

Zoning District: Low Density Residential (R1)

Comp. Plan Designation: Rural Residential

Applicable Ordinances: Sec. 1-19-3.210 Special Exceptions
Sec. 1-19-8.325 Limited Agricultural Activity in the Residential Districts
Sec. 1-19-11.100 Definitions

Background:

The subject parcel is zoned Low Density Residential (R1) and contains 1.137 acres.

Section 1-19-11.100 of the Frederick County Zoning Code defines AGRICULTURAL ACTIVITY, LIMITED as “The keeping of farm animals in residential districts on lots with less than 3 acres. Apiaries are excluded from this definition.”

Section 1-19-11.100 of the Frederick County Zoning Code defines FARM ANIMALS as “Those animals ordinarily found on a farm, including but not limited to: horses, ponies, sheep, goats, bulls, buffalo, cows, steers, rabbits raised for commercial purposes, turkeys, pigs, ducks, geese, chickens and guinea hens.”

Proposal:

The Applicant is requesting Special Exception approval for a Limited Agricultural Activity for the purpose of keeping chickens, on a residential lot that is less than 3 acres.

The Applicant has submitted a site plan showing that the proposed pen area will meet the 50 foot setback requirement. (See Attachment 1) The Applicant is proposing no more than 10 female chickens and no roosters.

General Criteria – Special Exception:

Special Exception.

- (A) An application for a special exception may be made only by persons with a financial, contractual or proprietary interest in the property for which a special exception is requested.

The Applicant states that he is the owner of the property.

- (B) A grant of a special exception is basically a matter of development policy, rather than an appeal based on administrative error or on hardship in a particular case. The Board of Appeals should consider the relation of the proposed use to the existing and future development patterns. A special exception shall be granted when the Board finds that:

- (1) The proposed use is consistent with the purpose and intent of the Comprehensive Development Plan and Chapter 1-19 of the County Code; and

The Applicant states that the raising of a small number of chickens is consistent with the rural nature of the community.

- (2) The nature and intensity of the operations involved in or conducted in connection with it and the size of the site in relation to it are such that the proposed use will be in harmony with the appropriate and orderly development of the neighborhood in which it is located; and

The Applicant states that the property is in an older development wherein most homes are 1 acre or more. The hens are quiet and should not disturb any neighbors. The coop/run will be at least 50' away from all property lines. (See Attachment 1)

- (3) Operations in connection with the special exception at the proposed location shall not have an adverse effect such as noise, fumes, vibration or other characteristics on neighboring properties above and beyond those inherently associated with the special exception at any other location within the zoning district; and

The Applicant states that the coop/run will be cleaned weekly to maintain a clean and odor free environment. The hens [will be?] are quiet and should not disturb the neighbors. The coop/run will be at least 50' away from all property lines. No employees are associated with the proposed use. No equipment is associated with the proposed use. There will not be any roosters on the property. (Attachment 1)

- (4) Parking areas will comply with the off street parking regulations of Chapter 1-19 of the County Code and will be screened from adjoining residential uses, and the entrance and exit drives shall be laid out so as to achieve maximum safety.

The Applicant states that the property is a private residence and that no additional parking is required.

- (5) The road system providing access to the proposed use is adequate to serve the site for the intended use.

The Applicant states that the road is adequate to serve the intended use in that raising a small number of chickens will add no additional traffic.

- (C) In addition to the general requirements listed above, uses requiring a special exception shall be subject to the specific requirements for each use outlined in §§ 1-19-8.320 through 1-19-8.355 of the County Code.

The Applicant states he understands this requirement.

- (D) A special exception approval may be granted in accordance with the general and specific requirements enumerated in this section. The Board of Appeals may, in addition to other requirements imposed under Chapter 1-19 of the County Code and is hereby authorized to add to the specific requirements any additional conditions that it may deem necessary to protect adjacent properties, the general neighborhood, and its residents or workers. Violation of such additional conditions, when made a part of the terms under which the special exception permit is granted, is a violation of Chapter 1-19 of the County Code and may be grounds for termination of the special exception.

The Applicant states he understands this requirement.

- (E) The Board of Appeals shall not grant a special exception unless and until:

- (1) A written application for a special exception is submitted indicating the section of Chapter 1-19 of the County Code under which the special exception is sought and stating the grounds on which it is requested; and

The Applicant states he understands this requirement.

- (2) A public hearing has been held; and the Board had made a finding of fact that the special exception requested meets the general and specific requirements outlined in Chapter 1-19 of the County Code.

The Applicant states he understands this requirement.

- (F) The grant of special exception may include approval of customary incidental accessory uses as reviewed and approved by the Zoning Administrator.

The Applicants states that he understands this requirement.

- (G) No use or activity permitted as a special exception shall be enlarged or extended beyond the limits authorized in the grant of special exception. All enlargements, extensions, and changes in use shall require grants of special exception, as in the case of an original petition.

The Applicant states that he understands this requirement and has no intention of increasing the number of chickens approved or changing the location in a manner that is not consistent with the requirements of the Frederick County Zoning Code.

- (H) If a grant of special exception is denied, no new petition for the denied use on the same property shall be accepted by the Board of Appeals for 1 year after the date of denial of the petition.

The Applicant states he understands this requirement.

- (I) A decision of the Board of Appeals granting a special exception will be void 5 years from date of approval by the Board of Appeals unless the use is established, a building permit is issued, construction has begun, or final site development plan approval has been received in accordance with the terms of the decision. Upon written request submitted to the Zoning Administrator no later than 1 month prior to the expiration date and for good cause shown by the applicant, a 1 time extension may be granted by the Zoning Administrator for a period not to exceed 6 months.

The Applicant states he understands this requirement.

Limited Agricultural Activity in the Residential Districts.

A limited agricultural activity shall be permitted in the residential districts where the following provisions are met:

- (A) The keeping of farm animals in conjunction with a single family residence, on lots less than 3 acres, shall be permitted in residential districts provided that no pens, stalls, or runs will be located closer than 50 feet of any lot line (see also Section 1-19-8.240 of the Frederick County Zoning Code).

The Applicant states that the coop/run will be located at least 50' away from all property lines. (Attachment 1)

- (B) All criteria in Section 1-19-3.210 of the Frederick County Zoning Code and all other provisions of that chapter shall be met.

The Applicant states that he understands this requirement.

- (C) The limited agricultural activity shall not cause any odor, dust, smoke, vibration or unreasonable noise which can be detected at or beyond the property line.

The Applicant states that he understands this requirement.

Action Required:

Staff requests that the Board review the general and specific criteria for Special Exception under Section 1-19-3.210 (Special Exceptions) and Section 1-19-8.325 (Ltd Ag Activity in the Residential Districts) of the Frederick County Zoning Code and render a decision on the Applicant's request to allow no more than 10 female chickens and no roosters on the property.
