30 North Market Street, Third Floor Frederick, Maryland 21701 (301) 600-1147

SECONDED the MOTION. The MOTION passed 6-0-0.

b) Peace and Plenty District Proposed Tiered Review Process

Ms. Whitmore provided a refresher on the project, and current work on the draft. Concerns were shared and addressed. Ms. Whitmore said the Maryland Historical Trust suggested considering a tiered review approach. She shared a map of the whole district and the historic farmsteads and answered questions from Mr. Lynch, Mr. Davidson and Ms. Ballweber. Ms. Bradley participated in the discussion and answered questions.

Public Comment: None

Ms. Ballweber MOVED to APPROVE the tiered review process for the Peace and Plenty Historic District as outlined in the March 29, 2022 staff memorandum. Mr. Lynch SECONDED the MOTION. The MOTION passed 6-0-0.

c) Proposed change to Historic Preservation Ordinance § 1-23-7

Ms. Whitmore explained that approval of a tiered review would necessitate a change to this ordinance. The proposed change to this section would add the following language: (E) This section shall not apply to areas within a designated district which have been identified for advisory review by the Commission due to existing agricultural preservation easements. There was further discussion.

Mr. Davidson MOVED the HPC support recommending a revision to the County Executive to revise Section 1-23-7 of the Historic Preservation Ordinance to include the language proposed in the staff memo, specifically Section E. Mr. Bastian SECONDED the MOTION. The MOTION passed 6-0-0.

IV) ADMINISTRATIVE BUSINESS

a) Form Historic Preservation Ordinance Subcommittee.

Ms. Whitmore talked about the subcommittee, explaining that no more than three HPC members may serve on the committee. Ms. Ballweber and Mr. Lynch volunteered to serve with Chair Baker requesting to be included on emails.

Public Comment: 1 Caller - Jim Jamieson, whose family owns a farm in the Peace and Plenty District. Mr. Jamieson expressed his support for all votes taken, especially the tiered review process.

b) Section 106 Review: Replacement of Bridge at Hessong Bridge Road over Little Hunting Creek (Comments Due: April 28)

Ms. Whitmore gave a brief presentation on the proposed replacement. Luz Padua-Perez, DPW, was available to answer questions. Mr. Lynch said he was pleased with what he is seeing now. Mr. Bastian complemented the report with lots of detail and thought. There was further discussion.
