b) Workshop:

CR# 21-03

Frederick

Samuel Fleming House

Applicant is seeking recommendations and advice on a conceptual landscape plan and addition. COMMISSION DISCUSSION

Staff Presentation by Mr. Lockard

Applicant Eric Gleysteen was present.

Following the presentation there was much discussion. Some HPC members questioned the proposed fencing. Applicant suggested additional landscaping such as ornamental grasses. Mr. Baker felt the fencing was overwhelming in some areas and said the Commission needs to see the suggested additional landscaping on paper. Members continued to offer their thoughts. Discussion moved on to retaining walls with Mr. Baker asking for drawings; and pillars with Ms. Thompson wanting drawings. The location of the petanque court was discussed with the point being made that there was too much too close together. Mr. Baker said the HPC needs drawings of what is being proposed and that written context can be interpreted differently. The driveway was discussed with some HPC members describing it as out of proportion based on other historic sites in Frederick County. However, some HPC members mentioned the roundabout design was historically appropriate. Additional discussion led to the suggestion that this agenda item be continued to a future meeting. The applicant agreed to return to a future meeting.

c) Public Hearing:

CR# 23-02

Frederick

Samuel Fleming House

Applicant is seeking a new fence line on property. COMMISSION DECISION

Staff Presentation by Mr. Lockard

Applicant Eric Gleysteen was present.

Ms. Thompson briefly took over the meeting while Mr. Baker addressed technical issues.

Following the presentation there was discussion with Mr. Gleysteen who asked for clarification of HPC member comments and alternatives. Clarification was provided including providing a map showing just the proposed fence with the existing fences. Ms. Thompson thanked Mr. Gleysteen for his patience.

Public Comment: None

Mr. Lynch suggested the matter be continued for additional information. Ms. Mitchell's opinion was to vote to continue if the members were not ready to accept or reject because it is on the agenda.

Following additional discussion Mr. Lynch MOVED to CONTINUE CR# 23-02. Mr. Burns SECONDED the MOTION. The MOTION passed 3-0-0-0.
