Yeagertown Road Reopened after Completion of Emergency Road Repairs

FREDERICK, MD – The Frederick County Office of Highway Operations today reopened Yeagertown Road between Old National Pike (Rt. 144) and Boyers Mill Road after performing emergency repairs following a vehicle accident. The road had been closed since June 28 in order to complete the repairs.

The county greatly appreciates the public's patience and cooperation while the road surface and guardrail were repaired.

For additional information, contact Acting Superintendent Mike Ramsburg, Office of Highway Operations, at 301-600-1565 or via e-mail at MRamsburg@FrederickCountyMD.gov.
