Are you 55 or older,
unemployed and looking for work?
We can help!

The Senior Community Services Employment Program provides opportunities to older Americans to prepare them for jobs in their community.

- Participants train an average of 20 hours/week.
- Participants receive a training stipend.
- This experience can be used as a bridge to find employment opportunities.

Come to this information session and find out if you are eligible.
