FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Single-Family House Fire in Wolfsville

FREDERICK, Md. (Jan. 12, 2022) – At approximately 6:56 p.m., today, Frederick County Division of Fire and Rescue units dispatched to a single-family house fire in the 10800 block of Gambrill Park Road in Wolfsville, Maryland. Units arrived to find the front of the home fully engulfed in fire. Upon arrival, crews quickly went to work knocking down the fire and searching for one resident who was unaccounted for.

Fire leadership quickly requested a Rapid Intervention dispatch and a Fire Task Force for additional manpower. It took approximately 50 firefighters from Frederick and Washington counties about 75 minutes to place the fire under control. Crews are still on the scene checking for extension, extinguishing hotspots, and performing overhaul and will be on scene for several hours.

The 12 different stations that responded include:

- Brunswick
- Citizens
- Graceham
- Independent
- Juniors
- Lewistown
- Middletown
- Myersville
- Thurmont
- United
- Walkersville
- Wolfsville

The Frederick County Fire Marshal's Office is on the scene investigating.
