Orcana Biotech LLC Announces New 90,000-Square-Foot Facility in Frederick

FREDERICK, Md. – Orcana Biotech LLC, a leading innovator in the dairy industry, is thrilled to announce the acquisition of a new 90,000 square foot manufacturing facility in Frederick, MD. This location marks a significant milestone for the company as it focuses on producing high-quality milk and creamers in ready-to-drink (RTD) formats.

The decision to establish in Frederick was made possible by the supportive environment provided by Frederick County. Frederick County's dedication to fostering business growth and economic development has been instrumental in Orcana's location efforts.

"We are excited to call Frederick, MD home for our new manufacturing facility," said Emmanuel Kornyo, CEO of Orcana Biotech LLC. "The strategic location and the supportive community make Frederick an ideal place for us to grow and thrive."

The new facility is slated to create numerous job opportunities for the local community, contributing to the economic development of Frederick County. Orcana Biotech LLC is committed to hiring locally and investing in the talent pool of Frederick.

"We are proud to be a part of the Frederick community and look forward to contributing to its vibrant economy," he added.

With this location, Orcana Biotech LLC affirms its commitment to delivering innovative dairy products while also making a positive impact on the local community and economy.

Frederick County Executive Jessica Fitzwater shared her support for the project. "Investments like Orcana Biotech's launch are a testament to Frederick County's strength as a business destination. We are delighted to welcome Orcana to our community and look forward to supporting their growth and success in Frederick."
