FCG TV's Channel Location Changes for Comcast Subscribers

High-Definition Broadcast Now Found on 1072

FREDERICK, Md. – The high-definition broadcast of Frederick County Government's television station, FCG TV, has moved to Channel 1072 for Comcast subscribers. The standard-definition broadcast remains on Channel 19. Viewers can also stream the HD version directly from FrederickCountyMD.gov/FCGtv.

FCG TV airs public meetings, both live and as replays. It also airs original programming, including the twice-a-month news magazine County Perspective. Other productions include the Farming Frederick and Destination Frederick series, profiles of residents, spotlights on County resources and services, public service announcements, and more. All original programming can be viewed on YouTube.com/FrederickCountyMD.

To view live meetings with captions that can be translated into over 100 languages, go to Frederick County Government's public engagement hub, connect.frederickcountymd.gov.
