Frederick County Welcomes First Dedicated Indoor Pickleball Club Dill Dinkers to open in fall 2024

FREDERICK, Md. – Frederick County is set to make waves in the sports community with the announcement of its very first dedicated indoor pickleball facility. This new club under the Dill Dinkers brand is located at 3950 Dartmouth Court in Frederick, Maryland. As the sport of pickleball continues to soar in popularity, this 18,400 square foot club was designed with both casual players and competitive athletes in mind. The facility will feature seven indoor courts, a dedicated social and events space, and a pro shop.

“Frederick County is the perfect location for this facility, and working closely with Ruppert Properties and the Frederick County Office of Economic Development made the process of selecting the spot and getting it ready for opening day even easier,” said Kaylin Corsiatto, a member of the ownership group. “This club will foster community engagement, promote health and wellness, and further elevate the pickleball scene in our region.” The ownership group also includes Jeff and Linda Corsiatto, and Alex McKenna.

“Given that pickleball is the fastest growing sport in America, I am thrilled for the grand opening of Dill Dinkers,” said County Executive Jessica Fitzwater. “This exciting addition promises to bring our community closer together and provide a fun activity for all ages.”

The Frederick Dill Dinkers team is excited to welcome everyone to the sport with a free week to learn more about pickleball and tour the club when it opens.
