Discussion of Maryland County Elected Officials' Compensation Levels: Chairperson Jafari led the Commission in a discussion on the compensation of the elected officials in other Maryland counties. Randy Scritchfield asked the commission if there was a need to go above and beyond the current Frederick County salaries based on how much the elected official's jobs have changed since the Charter form of government began in 2014. Ragen Cherney, Legislative Director and Chief of Staff for the County Council, suggested that the Commission create a questionnaire for the current county executive and council to answer. The Commission discussed what information they would like to receive and settled on the following for the questionnaire:

County Executive

1. How has your position changed since you took office?
 - a. Time commitment
 - b. Responsibilities (having changed as a result of our County's growth or other reasons)
 - c. Other ways?

County Council

1. In addition to the hours spent in County Council meetings, what other activities do you attend in an official capacity? How many hours per week do you spend on these activities? Keep in mind the following:
 - a. Meetings (Annual as well as weekly)
 - b. Constituent Services
 - c. Associations/Liaisons/Legislative Hearings
 - d. County Council Meeting Prep

- e. Budget Town Halls
- 2. How has this time changed over the last two years, and if you were a Council Member at the time, the last two years, four years, and eight years?
- 3. Do you feel you are fairly compensated? Why or why not?

The Commission asked staff to send the questionnaire to the County Executive and County Council and to have their responses returned by Friday, February 21, 2025.
