A Portion of Yeagertown Road to be Closed for Three Weeks Beginning July 7

FREDERICK, Md. – Yeagertown Road will be closed between Boyers Mill Road and Yeager Court for approximately three weeks from Monday, July 7 until Friday, July 25, weather permitting. The closure will remain in place overnight and a signed detour will be in place.

The closure will allow the Frederick County Department of Highway Operations to complete culvert replacements and pavement repairs. The work will be done in phases along sections of the road between Boyers Mill Road and Yeager Court.

Residents on Yeagertown Road will be notified about accessibility and Emergency Communications will be updated daily by Highway Operations staff. For additional information, please contact Josh Vanleeuwen at (301) 600-3455.
