Responsibilities

Legislation: As the legislative branch of government, the Council's main responsibility is enacting the law of Frederick County. They also authorize the issuance of all County bonds, amend the zoning code, and approve the County's Comprehensive Plan.

Budget: The Council is responsible for approving County spending. Each year, the County Executive submits a recommended operating and capital budget for review and approval by the Council. The Council's powers include annual authorization of the County's operating and capital budgets as well as approval of County tax rates.

Constituent Service: Council Members and their professional staff are available to assist citizens with issues with County government.

Appointment Confirmation: The Council confirms County directors, and County boards and commissions volunteers recommended by the County Executive.
