MOTION TO DISMISS
BY FREDERICK COUNTY, MARYLAND

Frederick County, Maryland, a body corporate and politic of the State of Maryland ("Frederick County") by its undersigned attorneys files this Motion to Dismiss the Application filed by PSEG Renewable Transmission, LLC ("PSEG") for a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity ("CPCN") to construct the Maryland Piedmont Reliability Project ("MPRP") in the above-captioned matter. In support of this Motion, Frederick County states as follows:

1. On October 28, 2025, The Maryland Farm Bureau, et al., filed its Motion to Dismiss the Application for a CPCN filed by PSEG in the above captioned matter. (ML 323746)
2. Frederick County supports the Motion to Dismiss filed by The Maryland Farm Bureau, et al., for the reasons set forth therein.
3. Frederick County hereby adopts and incorporates by reference the Motion to Dismiss filed by The Maryland Farm Bureau, et al., (ML 323746) into this Motion to Dismiss, as if fully set forth herein.
4. If the reliability concerns and projected system failures asserted by the applicant are accurate, then it is incumbent upon PJM and the owners of the existing utility infrastructure to manage the future demands upon its systems by aggressively pursuing improvements and rationed allocation of its limited resources to avoid harm to existing users.

CONCLUSION

Frederick County, Maryland respectfully requests that the Commission Dismiss the Application for a CPCN filed in this matter for the construction of Maryland Piedmont Reliability Project ("MPRP").

Respectfully submitted,
