County Council to Reconvene Public Hearing on Critical Digital Infrastructure

Meeting Extended to Ensure all Public Comments are Heard

FREDERICK, Md. – Frederick County Council's public hearing on Critical Digital Infrastructure (CDI) held on Tuesday, December 16 will be continued on Wednesday, December 17 at 7:00 p.m. at Winchester Hall, 12 East Church Street in Frederick.

The meeting will reconvene due to the number of people signed up to testify. Not all participants were able to comment by the original meeting's scheduled stop time. As this is a continuation of the December 16 public hearing, only those individuals who had signed up to speak at the public hearing on December 16, including those individuals who were on the phone at the time of the hearing, will be recognized to deliver public comment and no other sign-up slots will be made available.
